Dear Ms. Jack:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2015-001135), dated August 31, 2015, in which you requested the following:

“Any and all contracts held by or awarded to Pepperball Technologies, Inc., including any and all change of name packages and/or novation packages submitted by Pepperball Technologies to include any and all change of name/novation packages submitted by the successor of Pepperball Technologies, Inc.’s. This request is also seeking any contracts originally awarded to Pepperball Technologies, Inc. but now held by the successor of Pepperball Technologies, Inc.”

Please find enclosed the documents responsive to your request which includes six pdf documents. Two contracts have been identified: GS-07F-0067M and GS-07F-9184S - contract award documents, awarded under GSA Multiple Award Schedule 84 – Total Solutions for Law Enforcement, Security, Facilities Management, Fire, Rescue, Clothing, Marine Craft and Emergency/Disaster Response awarded to Command Security Corporation.

GSA is withholding actual signatures under the provisions of FOIA’s sixth statutory exemption (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6)), which permits an agency to withhold “personnel and medical files and similar files”, the disclosure of which “would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” We have determined that the privacy interests of individuals representing offerors outweigh any public interest in the disclosure of their names and contact information.

All other contract terms and conditions for contract GS-07F-0067M, are available on GSA’s e-Library website. Access at the following link:

Schedule vendors are not required to provide the GSA Contracting Officer copies of any orders that they receive against their contract; neither do we have any records related to specific task/purchase orders that may have been placed by other federal agencies against Pepperball's multiple award schedule contract.

Based on the above information, this constitutes a partial denial of your request. You have the right to appeal this partial denial of records under FOIA. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1C)
1800 F St. NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe the requested information should be released. Enclose a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this FOIA request. Should you have any questions, concerning this matter, please feel free to contact Mr. Mark Sims at 817-850-5534 or by email at mark.sims@gsa.gov.
